Chairman of a Bill entitled, "An Ordinance to amend the Opium Ordinance, 1909."

The COLONIAL SECRETARY seconded.

The Chairman announced that the Bill was passed.

The Bill amends the Opium Ordinance, 1909, by declaring that it is an offense to be in possession of morphine or compound of opium unless it is exempted from the provisions of the Ordinance or is obtained in accordance with any regulations made thereunder.

Clause 3 of the Bill amends section 55d of the principal Ordinance by deleting it quite clear that the Governor-in-Council has power to exempt any medicine from one or more of the provisions of the Ordinance.

Clause 4 of the Bill amends section 85 of the principal Ordinance by declaring that the appropriation of penalties referred to therein should also relate to morphine and compounds of opium.

His EXCELLENCY—Gentlemen, the object of the Bill relating to opium is to re-introduce the enactment that possession of Compounds of opium and morphine shall be illegal. In the Ordinance which were replaced by the Consolidating Ordinance which was passed last year possession of opium was not illegal, but it was in the present Ordinance. It is very clear in the present Ordinance, and it became necessary to enact the present amendment because, I am sorry to say, it is believed by the Opium Farmer that since the opium diwans were closed there has been a considerable increase of the use of opium due to the possession of opium pills by people who are not entitled to possess them under the regulations of the Ordinance as enacted. I have also a report from the Registrar-General, who has inquired into this matter and who also confirms the fact that it is probable that the drinking of opium wine made out of opium dross is on the increase.

HONGKONG LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

I have always frankly expressed my own view, my own fear lest this much worse form of opium habit should be fostered in this Colony by too sudden and drastic methods of preventing opium smoking. (Hon. Mr. Stewart—Hear, hear.) I regret very much that our anticipations should appear to be fulfilled. We must do our best to suppress this, and the object of the Bill now before the Council is with that intention. I am sure we can look to influential Chinese to help us to check the habit which I at any rate regard as infinitely more detrimental than smoking opium.

Hon. Mr. STEWART—I would like to understand, your Excellency, how you have so far legislated to prevent the keeping of opium, but not so far as I know to prevent the smoking of opium. If anyone chooses to smoke opium in private houses surely there is no law to prevent that?

Hon. Mr. STEWART—Then why should you invoke the law to prevent a man from eating or drinking opium? It seems to me an extraordinary interference with the liberty of the subject. It seems to me we might as well legislate as to alcohol consumed or the kind of alcohol. I do not understand the principle of this Bill and until I do I shall not vote.

THE COLONIAL SECRETARY—The hon. member is under a misapprehension regarding the principle of the Bill. The Bill does not prohibit the eating or drinking of opium. It simply enables a penalty to be enforced on anybody who has compounds of opium, morphia or such concoctions unlawfully. If he obtains them lawfully he would be hurt.

Hon. Mr. STEWART—His Excellency has just explained that the object of the Bill is to suppress the habit of smoking opium. Paraphrasing the words of the hon. member, you say in your possession under a medical certificate?

THE COLONIAL SECRETARY—The system is that the seller of opium compound has to deliver a certificate with what he sells in the same way as the Opium Farmer delivers a certificate of the prepared opium he sells. If the purchaser has that certificate in his possession together with the compound he is free of the law. If not he is amenable to it. The object of the legislation, as you know, sir, has been to suppress the sale of opium compound. Paraphrasing the words of the hon. member, you say it is a nuisance. The object of this legislation is to prevent such illegal possession and illegal obtaining of these drugs, and to force people if they wish to consume the drugs to obtain them in a legal manner.

Hon. Mr. STEWART—I would suggest that if the hon. member has any further questions he should defer them until a later stage, the second reading of the Bill. It is not usual to debate a Bill on the first reading.

Hon. Mr. STEWART—I just wanted to understand the principle of the Bill, Sir.

THE MAGISTRATE'S AMENDMENT ORDINANCE

THE ATTORNEY-GENERAL—This Bill was left in committee at the last meeting of the Council for the purpose of adding a few other sections with respect to the procedure regarding the removal of a prisoner to the Supreme Court from the Magistrate's Court. It is not possible to introduce these sections in the old Bill, so I have framed a new one, and ask leave to withdraw the old and introduce the new Bill.

THE ATTORNEY-GENERAL then moved the first reading of a Bill entitled, "An Ordinance to amend the Magistrate's Ordinance, 1890."

THE COLONIAL SECRETARY seconded, and the Bill was read a first time.

CIVIL PROCEDURE AMENDMENT ORDINANCE.

The ATTORNEY-GENERAL asked leave to withdraw the Bill entitled, "An Ordinance to amend the Code of Civil Procedure."

HIS EXCELLENCY—Gentlemen, we do not propose to proceed with this Bill under the following circumstances. On the 5th May, 1909, I received a letter from the Chamber of Commerce appealing to the Government to make the change in the law which this Bill was intended to give effect.

The suggestion was referred to the Law Society, who supported it, and it was also supported by the legal advisers of the Government at that time, but both the judges were opposed to it. I understood from the terms of the letter from the Chamber of Commerce that the change was the unanimous wish of the community, and I made that representation to the Secretary of State in forwarding a draft of the Bill to him. I have the terms of his despatch concurring in the Bill.

I gathered that he somewhat reluctantly consented and only on the understanding that it was demanded by public opinion of this Colony. When the Bill was introduced into this Council I anticipated in consequence no opposition whatever on the part of the unofficial members. It was therefore to me a very considerable surprise that the hon. member who represents the Justices of the Peace, whose constituents form a very weighty class in the community, opposed the Bill.

He has since opposed still more unequivocally by the hon. member who sits on his left (Hon. Mr. Osborne), who went so far as to state that he believed if the Bill was passed it would not be long before a public meeting would be called to condemn it. I also received a full signed protest from one of the leading counsel in this Colony. In these circumstances I had no alternative but to conclude that any representation to the Secretary of State that this Bill was in accordance with facts, and that being so deemed it improper to proceed with a Bill to which his sanction was obtained on a misrepresentation.

HIS EXCELLENCY—Council will adjourn sine die.

BROKERAGE CHARGES.

INTERESTING SINGAPORE COMPLAINT.

A correspondent writes to the Straits Times as follows:—

Sir, You have had correspondence lately in the matter of share dealing and brokers; and another point having reference to the subject is that of the commission charged on the transactions. It is surely far too high, at any rate on the larger transactions, and in many cases must bar the investor or speculator from making any profit except on a big move.

The rates charged are one per cent. on ordinary shares and five cents per share on one-half shares. The former of the two is not enough, but the latter is a perfect shame. The broker on here does little for it except to introduce buyer and seller, whereas the broker at home has to support a costly Stock Exchange which ensures credit, and publishes tape prices, telegrams, etc., and exercises supervision over its members, and also he does not simply give the buyer a certificate, but will have the registration into buyer's name carried out if requested.

Moreover, the broker at home is a broker pure and simple, and buyer's and seller's prices in any one transaction are the same, whereas here the brokers act as jobbers also, and at times when possible take a turn in price in addition to the brokerage.

In the existing circumstances where shares have such a ready market, I am convinced that if the local Press were to open a column "Shares for sale and purchase" and made an ordinary advertisement charge for introducing buyer and seller, it would be a convenience to the public and a source of profit to the Press.

Only recently I had a transaction in which the shares rose 2½, quite a respectable rise, and I resold, the total profit was $212, of which the brokers took $132 and I got $81; the position is absurd, they took no risk whatever and in case of failure on either side would deny any liability.

NOTES AND NEWS.

OVER TWO MILES A MINUTE.

Oldfield, a well-known motorist, has achieved a fine performance on the Ormond Beach course, Florida. Driving a 100-h.p. Benz, he succeeded in covering one mile in 27.33 seconds, equivalent to a speed of over 130 miles an hour. The best previous "straightaway" performance on the same course was that of Bruce Brown, who covered the mile in 33 seconds.

$100,000 FOR A PICTURE.

Mr. Otto Kahn, the banker, has purchased a portrait of "Frane Hals and his Family," painted by the master himself, for £100,000. This is by far the largest price ever paid for a Frane Hals. The only picture that this is likely to refer to is the famous portrait group by Frane Hals which was until recently owned by Colonel Wards and was exhibited by him a few years ago at the Winter Exhibition in Burlington House, where it caused a great sensation. The picture was recently bought by Messrs. Durand Brothers.

ANCIENT AND MODERN.

On the 19th ult. the name day of the Pope, there will be inaugurated in St. Peter's a lift, which will be at the service of visitors and which will take them as far as the platform at the base of the dome. No structural alteration has been necessary, for there is sufficient space in the curves of the spiral staircase to permit the cage to ascend and descend with ease. The Paris contemporary from which we take the foregoing speculates whether the architect of old did not foresee the introduction of the lift when he left this space.

THE MISUNDERSTOOD WALLABIES.

The wallaby, whose introduction to the menu of a West End restaurant was noted recently, once figured in an absurd story affecting the reputation of an eminent Colonial statesman. When Sir George Grey broke off his active connection with New Zealand politics the report came home that he had retired to his country estate, where he was living quietly, surrounded by his wallabies. The news caused amazement and consternation among some of his English friends, until it was explained to them that the word "wallaby" was not, as they had supposed, a Maori equivalent for "squaw."

SLEEP'S USES.

How important is sound sleep may be judged from the authoritative statement that five absolutely sleepless nights are enough to cause death, and two may be enough to cause hallucinations, loss of memory, and all kinds of other troubles. Insomnia means that some law of health has been broken—which one is not always clear. There is a story of a doctor who, on advising a patient to eat something for sleep's sake on going to bed, was met with the reply: "Why, doctor, you told me never to eat anything before going to bed." Said the doctor, with dignity: "Pooh! pooh! That was last January. Science has made enormous strides since then."

MR. CARNEGIE TAKEN FOR A BEGGAR.

Mr. Carnegie, after leaving the golf links with Mr. Walter Raymond at Pasadena, California, passed the cottage occupied by Mrs. Russell Sage, his great rival in philanthropy. "Oh, my old friend Mrs. Sage," said the iron-master, "I'll call and pay my respects to her. He walked to the front door and rang. The butler, who answered the summons, looked at the visitor and observed, the Mail says, "No use! Mrs. Sage doesn't receive any callers. She specially objects to photographers and beggars." The door was forthwith slammed in Mr. Carnegie's face. The millionaire was walking smugly away when Mr. Raymond came to the rescue and shouted through a window: "Andrew Carnegie wishes to call on Mrs. Sage." The butler reassured and explained: "Mr. Carnegie, we are just prepared to death here with beggars." Mr. Carnegie was then admitted to the presence of Mrs. Sage.

DISCIPLINE.

Among the objects of interest in the Exhibition of the Chase in Berlin is a stag which was shot by the Crown Prince. The story of the stag is interesting. When members of the Imperial family meet in the Kaiser's forests they must be accompanied by a forester. The Crown Prince and his wife were hunting, and the Prince wounded the stag, which they followed for a certain distance. The forester accompanying them then stopped and said the stag was beyond his jurisdiction, and it would be necessary for their Imperial Highnesses to be accompanied by the forester in whose jurisdiction the stag then was. The Princess urged that they should proceed, but her Lord impressed upon her that they should set an example to others. Consequently they waited until the second forester arrived. Then the pursuit was continued, and the stag, presumably also a believer in discipline, which had not strayed far, was brought down.

CHINESE NEWSPAPERS.

A Chinese mandarin has contributed to the Review an article on the Colonial Press. Two years ago we learn the Peking Gazette celebrated its millenary. Originally it appeared at intervals and in a very rudimentary form. Today it is modern, its editorial publication being three editions. Great changes have been made in fifty years, and since the Boxer rebellion the number and boldness of the newspapers have increased. There are seven different styles of writing, viz., the ancient, the literary, the florid, the common, the "semi-vulgar," the familiar, and the epistolary. The papers for the people are printed in the common style, and some have adopted the new alphabet sanctioned by the Government. Greater reverence is shown to the Press in China than in other countries. Old papers are never put to base uses; they are collected and burned in the pagodas. The Chinaman believes that profanation of newspapers is followed by blindness.

A JUDGE ARRESTED.

A French Assize Court judge, who likes to wear shabby clothes, was proceeding on a bicycle to a small town where he was to preside at a trial. He had put on his very oldest coat for the journey over a dusty country road. Two gendarmes were on the lookout for a man who had a weakness for the property of others. He had been described to them as tall, thin, with grey hair, short moustache, and badly dressed. When the cyclist came in sight the gendarmes, the Telegraph states, exchanged a knowing glance. This was their man. There could be no doubt. They stepped into the road and barred his way. "You are our prisoner," they said. "There was nothing for the judge to do but to allow himself to be escorted to the nearest town. He, the president of the Assize Court, indeed? We shall see," muttered the gendarmes. At the gendarmerie, however, the judge was able to prove his identity in spite of his old clothes. It was then the turn for the gendarmes to feel ridiculous. But he accepted their apologies with good nature, and nobody would have known the story if he had not told it himself to his friends as an adventure that had greatly amused him.

MOTHER SEIGEL'S SYRUP

CLEANSSES THE BLOOD

You can never FEEL well or BE well while your digestion is out of order. Indigestion lowers vitality and creates disease. It starves and poisons the body and causes Headaches, flatulence, heartburn, palpitation, biliousness, constipation, and anemia.

Well-digested food nourishes the body, gives bloom to the cheeks, sparkle to the eye, buoyancy to the mind, and vigour to the limbs. Mother Seigel's Syrup is made from the extracts of certain roots, barks, and leaves, which exert a remarkable curative and tonic effect on the stomach, liver, and bowels. Taken after meals, it ensures good digestion and makes food nourish you.
